Dear Jale hanoum:

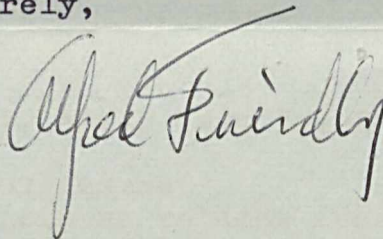

At your suggestion, by phone in Washington last year, I have written to Arif bey on December to ask him to obtain the necessary permission from the Turkish Historical Society and the Directorate of Museums for the proposed excavations in Side next summer. You indicated that you would also write him.

But, as you know better than most, Arif bey tends to put off paper work, having more scholarly and interesting things to do. So I wonder if you have had word from him about obtaining the necessary permissions, and if not, would you nudge him into the necessary action.

I hope that all goes well with your work at Princeton. You know how eagerly I look forward to your resuming the digs at Seleukeia and Side next summer.

With all best regards, in which Jean joins me.

Sincerely,

January 1974
